2016 - Your Year of Colour

Happy New Year one and all, the Signature Interiors team hope that you had a wonderful festive season and now feel ready to embrace everything that 2016 has to offer. This month we're celebrating Pantone's colours of 2016; asking you to consider your curtains; and bringing you an offer that 'Burns' brightly!

Serenity and Rose Quartz: Pantone's Color of the Year

The design pros at Pantone have selected not one, but two hues for the '2016 Color of the Year'. This year, cool blue Serenity and pale pink Rose Quartz share Pantone's title, making this the first year for which a single colour has not claimed the top spot. Pantone believes the shades "represent consumers' quest for mindfulness and a reflection of culture's increasing acceptance of gender fluidity." Consider Your Curtains

When you're investing your time and energy in creating a beautiful home, the last thing you want to do is spoil your efforts with curtains that don't quite cut it. Done well, curtains offer soundproofing, heat preservation and a beautiful backdrop when they are closed in the evening or framing your windows during the day. Think of them as you would a painting - they should decorate and enhance your home and make you feel happy when you look at them. Read here for tips on what to consider when choosing yours.

Burns Night Offer

January 25th marks the birth of Robert Burns, Scotland's most famed poet. As many of our clients will be celebrating Burns Night (and as my family has its very own tartan!), the Signature Interiors team have been inspired to seek out the beautiful 'Shetland' range of throws and cushions produced by the wonderful Bronte by Moon. Milled in West Yorkshire from pure new wool and with checks and patterns inspired by the islands, we're delighted to offer our customers 10% off the range until January 31st 2016. Simply email or phone us using the code Burns2016. Click here to explore the range of Shetland Cushions and Shetland Throws & Tartans.
