

Tidings of Comfort and Joy

Welcome to the first Signature Interiors eNews. We've sent you this email because we consider you to be a friend of ours, and as will all good friendships - communication is key!

This month we'd like to begin by sending you our heartfelt thanks for your custom during 2015; it's been a busy year packed with designing, creating and delivering some truly beautiful furniture, soft furnishings including curtains, blinds, cushions etc. and bespoke interior design schemes. We're delighted and grateful that you've entrusted Signature Interiors with your precious homes.

Winter warmers

With the nights drawing in, we thought you might like a few tips on how to keep your home toasty this festive season without turning up the heating!

Our gift to you

To thank you for being a friend, we'd like to offer you a 10% discount off all Signature Interiors gift items up until the 19th December. Simply present this email in person, or reference it when you call or email, and enjoy a festive treat on us.

Our New Year's resolution

Our resolution for next year is to stay in touch with people more often. We'd love to hear your thoughts on current trends, know what inspires you, and help to solve your furnishing challenges. Our monthly email is designed to kick this off, but if you'd like a more social interaction you can find us on all of the following channels.
